Women's Weekend 2018

12th/13th October

'Stepping Out in Faith'

Speakers:

Archdeacon Andrew Forster &

Mrs. Heather Forster

Cavan Crystal Hotel

Dublin Rd, Pollamore Near, Cavan

'Stepping Out in Faith'

will be a weekend with friends new and old sharing times of fellowship, reflection, and laughter.

Speakers: Archdeacon Andrew Forster and Mrs. Heather Forster

The Archdeacon is currently rector of Drumglass Parish in Dungannon and Moygashel. He previously served in St. Columba's Parish, Drumcliffe, Co.Sligo where W.B. Yeats is buried and as Chaplain at Queen's University Belfast.

Heather is a Mother's Union member and has been a social worker for the last 20 years, her specialism being in family and child care. She is currently a Guardian ad litem which involves representation of children going through court proceedings. They have a family of three, a boy and two girls, all at University.

Ladies DO you ever feel like you could do with a break?...

Away from work, pressures of home life, fighting the clock, being taxi-driver and chef....

Then come and join us for our weekend in Surprising Cavan... our new location... to renew friendships, make new friends, share together and enjoy times of fun and fellowship.

FREE TIME... if you stay a little longer....time to enjoy the facilities of the leisure centre, book yourself a beauty treatment, or visit one of Cavan's many attractions, or go shopping in Cavan Town!
